WHY SHOULD I COME?

At the PRSSA National Assembly, you can have a direct impact on the future of the Society while participating in intensive leadership development. The Assembly agenda includes the election of the 2010–2011 National Committee, leadership development training, discussions about Society matters and a welcome reception.

WHO SHOULD COME?

One official delegate from each Chapter and any other PRSSA members or affiliates interested in leadership, networking and professional development.

REGISTRATION

Delegates:
No registration fee. PRSSA pays for a three-night stay in a quad occupancy hotel room. Delegates are responsible for their own travel costs.

Non-delegates:
Registration costs $60. Non-delegates are responsible for their own hotel and travel costs. Single, double, triple and quad rooms are available for Assembly participants for $159 per night plus taxes.
